INSTRUCTIONS:

Cut Out Box from Rococo Rose Cardstock at 6" x 11". Then score along the 11" side at the top at 1", 5", 6" and 10" on Paper Trimmer. Pivot Cardstock to the 6" side and score at 1" and 5"

Burnish all the score lines well using your Bone Folder.

Cut all score lines on the 11" side up to the 1" horizontal score line, pivot to the opposite side and repeat. Notch out a small triangle on each side of the squares.

Cut a piece of Smoky Slate Cardstock at 3 ¾" x 3 ¾" and 4 strips at 3 ¾" x ¾"

Cut a piece of Pleased As Punch Designer Series Paper at 3 ½" x 3 ½" and 4 strips at 3 ½" x ½", ensuring all patterns are consistent in direction.

Adhere the Smoky Slate and Pleased As Punch Layers together using Multipurpose Liquid Glue.

Adhere the box edges together by placing Multipurpose Liquid Glue on each of the square tabs ensuring all edges are straight.

Adhere both the square layers above to the top and the rectangle layers to the side of the box top and top side panels using Multipurpose Liquid Glue.

Stamp the Welcome Easter Lamb, Grass, Bee and Sentiment on a piece of Whisper White Thick Cardstock and cut out the the Largest Stitched Shapes Square. Color the images with Stampin' Blends Markers.

Cut out a piece of Rococo Rose Cardstock with the Second from the Largest Layering Squares Scalloped Die and add it as a background layer to the stamped image above popping the stamped image up with Stampin' Dimensionals.

Add a small amount of Adhesive to the center of the top of the box and then add 15" of the Whisper White Polka Dotta Tulle crossing back and forth and cutting ends on an angle.

Add the Layered Stamped Image on top of the Whisper White Polka Dotted Tulle by popping it up with Stampin' Dimensionals. Add Wink of Stella to the Bees Wings and 3 of the Gingham Gala Adhesive Backed Sequins around the image. Using ½" Circle Punch cut a small thumb open on the front side panel for ease of opening.
